ABOUT SHELLY BLAIR

Music has always been a huge part of Shelly's life. From early exposure to classical music from San Francisco Conservatory of Music to deepening her love for God and music in her local church, she has grown as a musician and singer. From writing songs during college, to working on a host of demo projects, she has finally found her spot as a solo artist. Her message is simple. Never give up. Focus on God and you will always find your purpose in Him and in life.
